

Cellular Boot Time Improvements

- Cellular boot time improvements, on page 1

Cellular boot time improvements

Cellular boot time improvements are performance enhancements that

- reduce the time required for cellular interfaces to become operational after router startup
- decrease cellular link up-time by approximately 20% compared to previous releases, and
- enable faster traffic passing capabilities following system initialization.