

Guide to Cisco Multiservice Switch Documentation (June 2002)

This guide explains how to access release notes and product manuals for multiservice switching products.

Our products ship with this guide and a Documentation CD. Starting in June, 2002, Cisco multiservice switching products will no longer ship with printed release notes. Instead, release notes are available online or on the Documentation CD. We are making this change to ensure you always get the latest release notes, because printed release notes might be obsolete or outdated.

To Access or Print Release Notes

Multiservice switch release notes are on the Documentation CD, and are also accessible from <http://www.cisco.com/univercd/cc/td/doc/product/wanbu/index.htm>. Table 1 lists the June 2002 product release versions and their corresponding release notes.

Note

The June 2002 product release includes two new PNNI routing switches: the MGX 8830 and the MGX 8850 (PXM1E). For clarity, the MGX 8850 switch will now be referred to by the type of processor card it uses, for example, MGX 8850 (PXM1), MGX 8850 (PXM1E), or MGX 8850 (PXM45). These new titles will help you access or order compatible documentation. The release notes contain more information about these new switches.

Release notes cannot be ordered, but can easily be printed from the online PDF file. To access release notes online, you need to know the version number (Table 1). Release notes are generally organized as follows: Switch name, Release notes, version number. The following sample procedure describes how to find and print the MGX 8950 Release 3 release notes:

- Step 1 Go to the <http://www.cisco.com/univercd/cc/td/doc/product/wanbu/index.htm> URL.
- Step 2 Click on MGX 8950.
- Step 3 Click on Release Notes.
- Step 4 Click on 3.0 Version Release Notes for Cisco MGX 8950.
- Step 5 If you click on the PDF icon in the top right corner, you can download the release notes to your hard drive or print them.

To Access or Print Product Manuals

Multiservice switch product manuals are on the Documentation CD. They are also accessible from <http://www.cisco.com/univercd/cc/td/doc/product/wanbu/index.htm>, and can be printed from the online PDF file. The manuals released in June 2002 are listed in Table 2.

1. See the "Release Notes for Cisco MGX 8230, MGX 8250, and MGX 8850 (PXM1), Software Version 1.2.10" for details about hardware and software supported in MGX release 1.2.10.

To access manuals online, you need to know the release version number (see Table 1). Online product manuals are generally organized as follows: Switch name, Release version, Document title. The following sample procedure describes how to find and print the MGX 8950 Hardware Installation Guide:

- Step 1 Go to the <http://www.cisco.com/univercd/cc/td/doc/product/wanbu/index.htm> URL.
 - Step 2 Click on MGX 8950.
 - Step 3 Click on Release 3.
 - Step 4 Click on MGX 8950 Hardware Installation Guide.

Step 5 If you click on the PDF icon in the top right corner, you can download the manual to your hard drive or print it.

To Order Product Manuals

To order manuals, you need to know the DOC number (Table 2). The DOC number includes the = symbol. Manuals with no DOC number are available online only.

Note Printed documentation is shipped separately from your product order.

The way you place an order depends on whether you are a Cisco.com user.

Registered Cisco.com Users

If you are a registered Cisco.com user (Cisco direct customer), you can order documentation from the Networking Products MarketPlace at http://www.cisco.com/cgi-bin/order/order_root.pl

Additional part numbers for other manuals are available from your local account representative, or by selecting the documentation product family after choosing a Price List at <http://www.cisco.com/cgi-bin/front.x/pricing>

Nonregistered Cisco.com Users

If you are not a registered Cisco.com user, you can order printed copies of Cisco product documentation through a local account representative by calling Cisco Worldwide Sales at 800 553-NETS(6387).

Documentation CD

You can sign up to receive the monthly Documentation CD at http://www.cisco.com/cgi-bin/order/order_root.pl.

World Wide Web

You can access the most current Cisco documentation on the World Wide Web at <http://www.cisco.com>.
