

Cisco Wide Area Application Services (WAAS) FY10 Promotions

Product Overview

The Cisco® Wide Area Application Services (WAAS) FY10 Promotions are for enterprise, mid-market, and service provider customers who are considering WAN optimization solutions. The current Cisco WAAS promotions are a set of solution bundles that combine WAN optimization with video delivery and virtual blade functions in cost-effective, easy-to-order bundles for insertion into Cisco Integrated Services Routers (ISR) or use on Cisco WAAS Appliances. The promotions provide the industry's most cost-effective solution bundles, further enhancing the compelling return on investment (ROI) of WAN optimization by adding savings through integrated video delivery and virtualized hosting of local branch services. The FY10 bundles listed here start at new promotional price points to provide a wide range of deployment choices with built-in discounts.

The bundles listed in Table 1 have been created and discounted for ease of ordering.
