

Cisco IOS Software Release Train 11.3WA End of Sales and End of Engineering

Cisco IOS® Software Release Train 11.3WA will reach End of Sales on September 27, 1999. End of Sales means all previous 11.3WA releases can no longer be ordered, although they are still available through Cisco Connection Online (CCO) and Field Service Operations (FSO) for customers under maintenance contract. The last orderable image is expected to be 11.3(10)WA4(13).

Cisco IOS Software Release Train 11.3WA will reach End of Engineering on September 27, 1999. End of Engineering means that there are no more releases from that train. The last maintenance release 11.3(11)WA4(14), which comes out on the End of Engineering date, is available only through CCO and FSO, and not through manufacturing.

Ongoing support for functionality in Release Train 11.3WA is available in Cisco IOS Software Release Trains 12.0W, 12.0M and 12.0T.
