

Cisco 7200 Series Chassis with DC Power Supply

Introduction

The Cisco 7200 series base chassis include the 4 slot CISCO7204VXR and the 6 slot CISCO7206VXR. These chassis have previously been available with an AC power supply included as the default and a DC power supply as a configurable option. With the introduction of two chassis product IDs, customers can now order the 7200 series with the DC power supply as the default. These new chassis part numbers simplify ordering by allowing customers to select a single part number for the chassis and DC power supply.
