

David Clarkson
Director, Human Resources, Canada
Cisco

As Director of Human Resources for Canada at Cisco, David Clarkson provides leadership and support in the areas of HR strategy and recruitment, diversity initiatives, leadership development, and coaching. He also provides support to the U.S.-Canada Theatre Planning and Operations business group. David is the executive sponsor and leader of the Corporate Citizen Board in Canada, which oversees all Canadian corporate initiatives around community, charity, workforce/workplace, and green issues.

Previously, David was a HR consultant at Cisco Canada responsible for talent management, organizational development, and human resource management. Prior to joining Cisco, he spent 10 years as a consultant in the Finance, Telecom, Software and Not for Profit industry.

David holds an honors bachelor of science degree in agricultural business from the University of Guelph.