Section 1: Company Information

It is possible that your company may already be registered. To verify, please search your company.

Search Tips:

1. Search can either be performed on DUNS number or name and location.
2. If a search on an abbreviation does not produce any results, try our search with the expanded name of the company. For example, search for HP and if not found, search for Hewlett Packard or vice versa.

If the search is not successful after several attempts, it's most likely that your company has not been registered with the Cisco Channel Partner Program.

This Agreement applies to Registered Partners that are resellers and "Professional Service Providers", as those terms are defined in Part A below.

This Agreement is entered into by and between Cisco Systems, International B.V. Part A, Definitions: Applies to all Registered Partners.
Part B, Reseller Terms and Conditions: Only applies to Registered Partners acting as Resellers.
Part C, General Terms and Conditions: Applies to all Registered Partners.

If Cisco and Partner have signed a Pre-Existing Agreement that is in effect as of the day Partner submits this Agreement, the Pre-Existing Agreement shall take precedence over this Agreement. 13.10 u>Other Remedies. All Cisco remedies specified in this Agreement shall be in addition to, and shall in no way limit, any other rights and remedies that might be available to Cisco, all of which Cisco hereby expressly reserves.
