

Peter Reichstädter

DIGITAL  AUSTRIA

Peter Reichstädter is working for the Federal Chancellery of the Austrian Republic in the Division for the Austrian ICT-Strategy (www.digitales.oesterreich.gv.at), which is responsible for the elaboration and coordination of the Austrian E-Government strategy within the initiatives of eEurope2005 and i2010 (there he is leading the focus working group on Austrias Interoperability Framework). He is/was there responsible for establishing basic E-Government services (Model of electronic delivery, Interoperability Frameworks, ...) and structures (like Person Data structures, notifications, ...). Peter is also strategic technical advisor at the e- Europe-Award 2003 honoured project of www.help.gv.at. In this function he is coordinating the needs and necessary project steps towards establishing help.gv as the main Austrian transactional E-Government portal.

Furthermore Peter is the head of the Austrian Computer Society working group on E-Government / Technical aspects, ...); author of many specific publications, lecturer at the E-Government and E-Commerce courses of studies at the Danube-University Krems, research partner at Viennas technical University and member of different EU-relating working groups ("Portal of the EU Administration" - Your Europe, European Interoperability Framework – Infrastructure, OSS, TWG, ...) elaborating the main points of the trust and security as well as adding contributions to OECD E-Government peer review initiatives & other OECD working groups.

Senior E-Government Strategy & Architect Evangelist

peter.reichstaedter@bka.gv.at Federal Chancellery / ICT-strategy

FEDERAL CHANCELLERY  AUSTRIA

