The text will read: "You do not yet have partner-level access. To obtain partner-level access, you must associate yourself to a Cisco Channel Partner company or register your company as a partner." You will receive a confirmation email.

PARTNER REGISTRATION

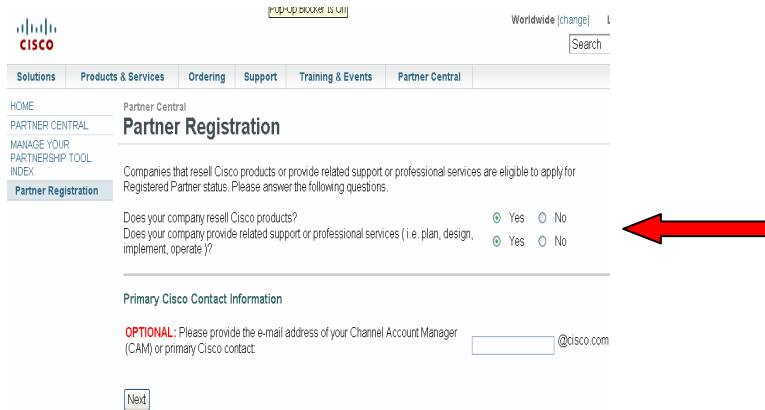

1. Go to the Partner Registration page:

<http://tools.cisco.com/MWChannels/IPA/welcome.do> and log in with your CCO userID and password.

The screenshot shows the Cisco Partner Central interface. The top navigation bar includes 'Solutions', 'Products & Services', 'Ordering', 'Support', 'Training & Events', and 'Partner Central'. The main content area is titled 'Partner Registration' and includes a list of steps for registration. A red arrow points to the 'Launch Partner Registration' link in the 'Instructions' section.

2. Select “Yes” on both options (default) :

The screenshot shows the Cisco Partner Central interface with a survey. The survey asks: 'Does your company resell Cisco products?' and 'Does your company provide related support or professional services (i.e. plan, design, implement, operate)?'. Both questions have 'Yes' radio buttons selected. A red arrow points to the 'Yes' radio button for the second question.

3. Search your existing company details:

Section 1: Company Information

It is possible that your company may already be registered. To verify, please search your company.

Search Tips:

1. If a search on an abbreviation does not produce any results, try our search with the expanded name of the company. For example, search for HP and if not found, search for Hewlett Packard or vice versa.
2. If the company name search does not produce any results, use "Search by Address".

If the search is not successful after several attempts, it's most likely that your company has not been registered with the Cisco Channel Partner Program.

The company you searched for could not be found in Cisco channel database. If you wish to search again, please click the "Back" button. Otherwise, please click the "Continue" button to complete the application process to become a Cisco Registered Partner.

Note: If your company is not found in the Cisco channel database, your company's registration may be inactive or ineligible to participate in the Cisco channel partner program. For further assistance, please contact your Cisco partner administrator, channel account manager, or open a Partner Help case.

4a. If your company was already listed: You should proceed to Partner Self Service

- Company would only appear as listed if it is for Annual Renewals or Company has been decertified and are Re-Registering

- If Company is Actively Registered and is selected in drop down menu; user will receive an error message.

User should skip Registration process and proceed to get Partner Level Access

- If Company has a “direct sales” contract existing in Legal Database; the user will receive an error message.

User should contact support to look up their company’s “Buy-Method”.

4b. If you just created the company: your application will be reviewed by Cisco and you will receive a notification email upon approval. You will furthermore have administrative access to manage your company data via the Partner Self Service (PSS) tool as the PSS Partner Administrator.
