

Damian Ryan
Data Center Manager,
Cisco Asia

Damian Ryan is Cisco's Regional Manager for Data Center Asia, The Cisco Data Center team provides customers with network solutions that consolidate, Virtualize and automate the provisioning of Data Center application and computing resources to drive operational efficiency and business agility.

Damian has over 20 years experience architecting, designing and implementing network and data center environments. He has previously held consulting roles at British Telecom, Brocade Communications and the UK based NatWest Bank. At NatWest Damian was part of the team that architected, designed and deployed a multi-million dollar green field Data Center.

###