

Daniel Tang

Go-To-Guy For All Things Accessibility

Raised In:

Hong Kong. Came to the United States for college.

Dreamed Of:

Becoming a professional musician.

Graduated With:

A degree in computer science and a determination to take on new challenges and overcome difficulties.

Still Enjoys:

Playing the violin (he joined an ensemble last year).

Works For:

The corporate compliance division, specializing in making sure Cisco products are accessible to customers with disabilities. Also does training and trouble-shooting for customers with disabilities.

Was The First:

Visually disabled person to become a Cisco Certified Internet Expert.

Spearheaded:

Cisco's employee resource group for people with disabilities. Is also leading the effort to launch an October event in honor of National Disability Employment Awareness Month.

Personal Philosophy:

Moving forward matters more than how far you go.