

Heather Coverdale

Compassionate, Confident Business Development Manager

Described As:

Outgoing. Professional. Reliable. A “people person.”

Likes:

The variety and types of people she engages with, including internal Cisco people and external software vendor partners.

One Characteristic Of Her Work Performance That She Really Likes:

Being a perfectionist, but being aware that perfection is not always achievable.

On Working With A Disability:

Coming back to work at Cisco after being very ill for 3 years and unable to work at all, her co-workers have been 100% supportive. Cisco has provided her with a place where she can lie down, and the company bought ergonomic furniture for her.

Can't Live Without:

A network of friends and family

Favourite Thing To Do With Friends And Family:

Spending time together enjoying a meal and catching up

Last Great Meal:

A romantic Valentine's Day dinner of scallops, steak, and chocolate mousse pudding that her husband prepared.

Looks Forward To:

Starting a family one day
