

Ina Christian

Team-Player. Theatre Manager.

Position:

Managing a team that provides logistical support for Cisco meetings and events throughout the 14 countries of the Asia-Pacific region.

Most Memorable Event:

Her very first Cisco event, a sales meeting for 1,600 sales staff in beautiful Hawaii, which included the organisation of flights, rooms, meals, awards ceremony, and more.

Best Aspects Of Work:

Conversing with and being inspired by senior leaders, and finding her world view opening up. Having an opportunity to impact cost-savings. Managing an outstanding team of events specialists.

Favorite Activities:

Taking piano classes. Volunteering for UNIFEM. Getting her business degree at a Singapore university.

Co-Workers Would Be Surprised To Know:

She used to sing professionally.

Mentors:

Her parents, who moved from India to Singapore to get married and to build a new life for their family.

Philosophy Of Life:

Everything in moderation.

Last Great Meal:

Hainanese chicken rice and Satay Bee Hoon, which is a mixture of Chinese noodles with Malay satay sauce on one plate. A meal that celebrates diversity.
