

Iveta Moura

Fun-Loving, Good-Spirited Customer Service Support Person

Speaks:

Latvian, Russian, German, English, Portuguese, and some Swedish and Norwegian. She dreams mostly in German.

Likes:

Going to work every day. It's a lot of fun, because she never knows what will happen, as the requests she gets vary. She enjoys working with a very diverse, multicultural, and multinational team. Also likes walking along the beach and having the sea nearby.

Co-Workers Think Of Her As:

Optimistic. Positive thinker. Likes to laugh a lot.

Surprising Fact:

She was the junior champion in table tennis in Latvia, where she was born and raised (and is proud to be from).

Biggest Influences:

Her parents. She learned positive thinking and strong values from them, and saw how they managed their lives during the difficult time when Latvia was a Soviet republic. As a result, she appreciates the quality of life she has now.

Last Great Movie She Saw:

"Mamma Mia." It had Portuguese subtitles, so the entire theatre audience was singing.

Philosophy Of Life:

Look at the bright side of life. There's a solution to almost every problem.

Looks Forward To:

Having her baby. It will be an interesting time with lots of adventures and surprises for at least the next 40 years.
