

Janice Hulse

Continually-Evolving Managing Director

Described As:

Outgoing. Passionate. Zealous. Caring.

What She Likes About Working At Cisco:

Meeting with business leaders, customers, partners, executives throughout the Asia-Pacific region. Helping them take costs out of their businesses, and driving innovation.

Most Recent Success At Work:

Her entire team met their aspirational goals at the close of the fiscal year, and she was very proud of them.

Most Recent Success Outside Of Work:

Was a rower on the American Dragon Boat team in Singapore for 2 years, competing against different countries, companies, and institutions.

Benefits of Diversity:

It fosters creativity and innovation in the workplace, and brings in different points of view.

Favorite Activities:

Skiing with her family (they have a home in Whistler, British Columbia, Canada).

Mentor:

Her mother. She survived World War II in Germany, immigrated to Canada, and instilled a strong work ethic and family values.

Can't Live Without:

Her iPod, since music is a great stress reliever for her.

Looks Forward To:

Having a studio and rekindling her passion for art.
