

Lisa Amos

“The Real Boss” Of Her SVP!

Described As:

Approachable. Friendly. A team player. Trusted. Will treat everyone who walks up to her desk with a smile.

Best Aspects Of Her Job:

As an Executive Admin, she runs her SVP's business life, juggles his meetings, sifts through 30-50 requests each day, and tells him where he needs to be and when. She enjoys the fact that there's always something different every day.

Best Aspects Of Cisco:

The diversity, working with so many different people, and learning so much about other cultures and ways of working. She truly loves working at Cisco, and wouldn't want to work anywhere else.

Surprising Fact Her Co-Workers Don't Know:

She once sang on stage with the late soul singer, Edwin Starr.

Outside The Office:

She's a single parent to an 11-year-old son with Asperger's Syndrome. He is her first passion, so she strives for a good work/life balance.

Role Model:

Her late grandmother, who had 7 children, was widowed, shook off breast cancer, and took in people who were down on their luck.

Last Great Meal:

A traditional English roast beef dinner her mother made, with potatoes, vegetables, Yorkshire pudding, and gravy.

Philosophy Of Life:

There's always someone who is worse off than you, so keep things in perspective. And keep a smile on your face.
