

Miin Leong

Action-Oriented Corporate Communications Person

Speaks:

Mandarin, Cantonese, English, Hainanese, and various Southern Chinese dialects.

Responsibilities:

Manage interactions with analysts in Asia Pacific, to make sure direction and strategies are clearly delivered to this community.

What She Likes About Working At Cisco:

The ability to make an impact in everything she does. The unique working culture, with its open communication and trust, drives change and teamwork. The fact that she was given the chance to travel extensively in the region and work with colleagues from different cultures and backgrounds. The flexibility and good work/life balance she has as a working mother.

Most Recent Success Outside Of Work:

Giving birth to a second baby boy, Justin, now 8 months old. Her older son, Lucas, is 4 years of age

Best Advice She Received:

Focus on building your experience and exposure in your career. You need not chase after money, it will come after you.

Last Great Movie She Saw:

"P.S.: I Love You." The story is very meaningful; appreciate what you have and don't take it for granted.

Philosophy:

Life is really short, so just do it. Be positive. And make every day a happy day.

Looks Forward To:

Doing more community service and volunteer work.
