

Stephanie Foery

Team-Player, Ambitious “Mrs. CBC”

Described As:

Open-minded. Friendly. Customer-focused. Tough as needed. Always smiling.

Position:

Manager of Customer Briefing Centre, Eschborn, Germany, which she established in 2007.

Recent Successes:

Establishing the first Customer Briefing Centre in Europe from scratch in Frankfurt. Also, for 5 years, she was the manager for the Cisco booth at CeBIT, the world's largest IT and telecommunications fair, in Hanover.

Co-Workers Would Be Surprised To Know:

She's a Hatha Yoga teacher and certified in 3 levels. Yoga makes her more balanced and relaxed. She also teaches kids how to ski (she grew up in the mountains of Bavaria).

Philosophy Of Life:

Think about how you would spend each day if it were your last day on earth.

Favorite Place In The World:

Australia, where she used to work as an au pair. The people are friendly, and there's much to see, with amazing natural sights. She's visited all the East Coast cities, the rainforest, Ayers Rock, and more.

Couldn't Live Without:

Her ritual of talking with her husband every evening. It closes the day, and gives her power for the next day. He shows her all her possibilities, and inspires her.

Last Great Meals:

Tuna, snails, and Thai food. Experimental cooking is one of her hobbies, and she enjoys making Vietnamese food and knodel (German dumplings).
