

Congratulations!

Dear Mr. Chambers,

I am thrilled to let you know that Cisco will appear on the inaugural Best Multinational Workplaces list – the world's first global workplace excellence ranking by Great Place to Work[®].

Please accept my invitation to attend our gala awards ceremony and dinner Thursday, October 27, 2011 at 6.30 pm at the New York Stock Exchange in the heart of New York's financial district.

Great Place to Work will be announcing your ranking on this list and honoring your company, your employees and your leadership at the awards ceremony. Only 25 multinational companies are being recognized on this first-ever Great Place to Work global list.

Please understand that this information is strictly confidential and embargoed until 10 p.m. Eastern Standard Time, October 27, 2011.

To learn more about this award please do not hesitate to contact me. Steve Sensebe from my staff will also be available to take care of your registration for you. Steve can be reached on +1 (415) 503 1234 x331 or at globalevent@greatplacetowork.com.

I look forward to meeting and congratulating you on this outstanding achievement.

Best,

José Tolovi, Jr.

Global CEO, Great Place to Work[®] Institute Inc.
jose.tolovi@greatplacetowork.com

About Great Place to Work

Great Place to Work[®] Institute is a global research, consulting and training firm that helps organizations identify, create and sustain great workplaces through the development of high-trust workplace cultures. We serve businesses, non-profits and government agencies, beginning some 15 years ago with great workplace lists in the United States (with FORTUNE magazine's 100 Best Companies To Work For[®] list) and Brazil. Today we produce Best Workplaces lists in 45 countries on all continents in what has become the world's largest survey of workplaces, with more than 5,500 companies participating. Read more...
