

Ronald E. Montoya

President & CEO
PCI Advantage

Ronald E. Montoya is President and CEO of PCI Advantage - a supplier, assembler, and manufacturer of telecommunications products, cable and cable products. PCI was founded in 1990 and is based in Denver, Colorado. PCI was previously ranked #19 on the Inc. Magazine Inner City 100 list, for three years running. Mr. Montoya is also owner of Innov8 Solutions USA and President and CEO of Plastic Supply Inc., in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Mr. Montoya holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Colorado, 1972, and Juris Doctorate from University of Denver, 1977. He and his wife, Naomi, have been married for 40 years and are the parents of R.C. Montoya and Dan Montoya, who are both very involved in the growth and success of PCI.

Mr. Montoya is a dedicated member of several community boards and committees, which includes National Jewish Hospital, Denver Hotel Authority, Colorado Forum, Mountain States Employers Council, Rose Community Foundation, and others. He has served on numerous boards, committees, and councils throughout the years.

Mr. Montoya is a recognized business leader, promoting continued growth and development of business in the United States and abroad, bringing economic benefits and diversity to the community. Mr. Montoya served as the Chairman of the Board for the United States Hispanic Chamber of Commerce from 1996 to 1998, and as Executive Director of the Colorado Office of Minority Business from 1986 to 1990.

Listed are some of the numerous commendations, awards and certificates that have been presented to Mr. Montoya throughout his career. Not listed are the "Ethics in Business Award", and the "Martin Luther King Business Social Responsibility Award".