

HOST CHIEF'S NIGHT

OCTOBER 5

COLORADO EXPLORATION

The majestic peaks of the Rockies and the bustling streets of downtown Denver. The Wild Wild West and the thrill of the Gold Rush. Discover the perfect setting for your truly Colorado experience at the Denver Performing Arts Complex. The birds of prey. The cowboys. The peaks. The fishing holes. The many unique locations where memories are made. Whether you come to golf or ski, climb a mountain or ride a bull, meet or mingle, this event is something you won't want to miss.

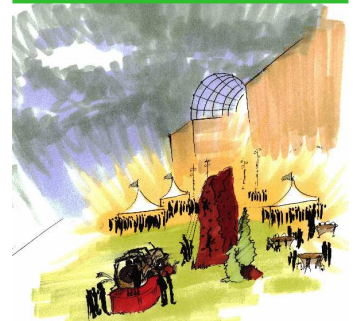

The rich history and colorful hospitality of Colorado comes to life in this lively, interactive evening for IACP's Host Chief's Night. Stroll through the old West, explore the mining caves, reach for new heights in the great outdoors, or simply enjoy the city life.

On this special night, the uniqueness of Colorado will take you right up to the edge. As guests begin to line the streets of downtown, anticipation and excitement will begin to brew. Here there truly is something for everyone. Tonight, the Denver Performing Arts Complex (DPAC) will be transformed into lasting memories for your guests. As the largest arts complex in the world, DPAC features ten performance spaces connected by an 80-foot-tall glass roof. Collectively, DPAC is a four-block, 12-acre site that is home to a Tony Award-winning theatre company, Broadway touring productions, contemporary dance and ballet, magnificent chorales, a major symphony orchestra, internationally-acclaimed opera and more.

Watch as the historic Ellie Caulkins opera house is harkened back to days of old when Denver was just a fledgling city without any credit or fame to its name. 'There's gold in them there hills' and once word got out Denver started to boom. When gold struck here in the mid-1800s, Denver began to be known as the gateway to riches. Step through the rough and glamorous days of mining into the days of Aspen & Ore in Colorado.

In the Seawell ballroom, step into your mountain top adventure. From skiing outdoors, to enjoying a spot relaxing in the lodge, welcome yourself to your Rocky Mountain Lodge.

Finally, Colorado is an outdoor adventurer's dream state. Walk out onto Sculpture Park and fall right into the 21st century quintessential Colorado: the larger than life stomping ground of the adventurous and thrill-seeking alike. Whether it's an adrenaline rush you are looking for, the fresh mountain air, or time by the campfire, there is certain to be something for everyone.
