

Thank You for Choosing Cisco Content Security!

Please take a moment to review the resources in this document, fill in your purchase information below, and save it for future reference. You'll need this information if you contact Cisco or your reseller for support.

How do I get my licenses and activate my appliance?

Simply visit the Licensing Portal and enter your product activation keys (PAKs).

Licensing Portal: <http://tools.cisco.com/SWIFT/LicensingUI/Home>

How can I view and manage my licenses and devices?

The Licensing Portal lists your current and past licenses, devices, and transaction history. You should also save your PAK files here for future reference.

Select PAKs → Actions → Add New PAKs.

What are my support options? Where can I download software?

Cisco provides you with a host of support options based on your support agreement. They range from online self-help to downloads to live 24-hour support.
