

Cisco Collaboration Flex Plan

Simplify your transition to cloud collaboration services

Today's office is diverse and fast-paced, and isn't constrained by geography. However, it's still as important as ever for employees to connect and collaborate. Whether they wish to work together one on one, keep in touch using messaging, or brainstorm in meetings, being able to connect and work together effectively is critical. You need to be able to provide the technology and communications tools that make this possible.

And you need to be able to deliver collaboration services cost-effectively, using on-premises infrastructure or cloud-based services, depending on the needs of your employees.

The Cisco® Collaboration Flex Plan entitles people to use Cisco's industry-leading collaboration tools with one simple subscription-based offer. It helps with transitions to the cloud, and investment protection, by including cloud, premises, hosted and hybrid deployments with the flexibility to use them all. Choose to equip employees with meetings, calling, or both, and add more at any time. And seamlessly drive enhanced team collaboration with Cisco Spark™, which is included at no additional charge. One agreement covers software, entitlements, and technical support for cloud-based and on-premises services.

Benefits

- Simplicity: Cisco's industry-leading collaboration tools, available in one subscription
- Flexibility: Mix and match between cloud, premises, hosted, and hybrid deployment options
- Agility: Get users up and running with the services they need today. Scale up as adoption increases

To learn more about the Cisco Collaboration Flex Plan, please visit <https://cisco.com/go/collaborationflexplan>. When you purchase meetings or calling within the Cisco Collaboration Flex Plan, you can select the required support level. For more information about these choices, and for help with selecting the support that's right for your business, contact your Cisco account manager or an authorized Cisco partner.

You can choose the services you need today, and grow at your own pace. You can provide meetings or calling services, or both. And you can enhance productivity further by providing teams with Cisco Spark, included at no additional charge, for ongoing work. On every device, in every place, to move work forward. You can enable these services for selected individuals, teams, or departments, or for your entire organization. And you can combine everything in one subscription, with the flexibility to add services as adoption grows.

There is no need to manage complex agreements. And you can mix and match Meetings and Calling subscriptions for flexibility and value.

With the Flex Plan, you can choose the right subscription based on your business size and needs. Each option includes technical support. Choose from the following purchasing models:

- For enterprise-wide deployment, Cisco Enterprise Agreement customers can purchase via the Cisco Collaboration Flex Plan. Gain maximum value by enabling services for everyone in your organization for meetings or calling or both.
- To purchase meetings according to usage: Cisco Collaboration Flex Plan – Active User Meetings: Anyone can host a meeting, and you pay only for those who use the entitlement
- To provide calling services to individuals, teams or departments: Cisco Collaboration Flex Plan – Named User Calling: Your purchase is based on the number of people who need calling services. Grow at your own pace.
