

Turn employees into teams.

“Our people are our business. With more people being mobile, spread globally, and busier than ever, it is even harder for teams to work together. We were lacking a connection. With Cisco Webex Teams, we now have a real team culture. People are more available and connected to drive work forward. We see better alignment, faster brainstorming, and more sharing across the business”

Connect people with common interests or cultures in spaces to foster a sense of community in the workplace. Encourage sharing across groups of people – it’s easy to opt in or out.

Make spaces for fun! When the holidays or special occasions come around, teams can get together and share activities, have digital parties, and post pictures that will put a smile across the company’s face.
