

Prioritize Employee Experience with Hybrid Work

HR leaders are exploring how they can leverage technology and devices that adapt to the uniqueness of each employee. So they can create deeper relationships and unlock more creativity and productivity.

“Of HR leaders think employee experience will be one of the most important factors contributing to achieving business objectives within two years.”¹

“Employees are 230% more engaged and 85% more likely to stay beyond three years in their jobs if they feel they have the technology that supports them at work.”²

Easy to manage, end-to-end solutions let you power and secure hybrid work experiences on a global scale.

Offer knowledge workers full access to all the applications and collaboration tools they need, anytime, anywhere

Give contact HR center agents one-touch access to remote experts and other agents, enabling personalized, quality interactions with employees

Help frontline workers using their preferred mobile devices, supporting them with secure access and the best possible application performance

“Effective hybrid working has enabled staff to work safely. It has fostered new connections and a new sense of collaboration. Team members feel engaged with the business as it embarks on a new chapter; Rao says team member satisfaction levels are at an all-time high. With PACU hiring, effective hybrid working options present the business as modern and forward looking.”³
