Configuring Locator/ID Separation Protocol

Thank you for your interest in downloading the LISP Configuration Guide. This Cisco LISP guide is under construction and, once completed, will be posted to a new location on Cisco.com (please remember to update your bookmark):
http://www.cisco.com/en/US/docs/ios-xml/ios/iproute_lisp/configuration/15-1mt/irl-15-1mt-book.html.

In the meantime, please refer to the Cisco IOS IP Routing: LISP Command Reference at http://www.cisco.com/en/US/docs/ios-xml/ios/iproute_lisp/command/ip-lisp-cr-book.html.

You can also visit the Cisco Systems, Inc., Locator/ID Separation Protocol (LISP) web site for more information. The Cisco LISP web site is hosted in a production LISP environment and can be reached from both IPv4-connected and IPv6-connected hosts by going to http://lisp.cisco.com.

For questions or additional information, please feel free to contact the LISP team at:
lisp-support@cisco.com.
