

Supplemental End User License Agreement

IMPORTANT: PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

Dear Customer,

This Supplemental End User License Agreement (“SEULA”) contains additional terms and conditions for the Software product(s) set forth herein and licensed under the End User License Agreement (“EULA”) between you and Cisco Systems, Inc. or its Affiliates (collectively, the “Agreement”). Cisco’s EULA can be found here: <https://www.cisco.com/c/en/us/about/legal/cloud-and-software/software-terms.html>. Except as otherwise set forth in this SEULA, capitalized terms will have the meanings as in the EULA. To the extent that there is a conflict between the EULA and this SEULA, this SEULA will take precedence.

By downloading, installing, or using the Software you agree to comply with the terms of this SEULA.

SUPPLEMENTAL LICENSE TERMS FOR: Cisco IOS XRv 9000

Table 1. SOFTWARE ENTITLEMENT:

Product	License Metric	License Duration
Cisco IOS XRv 9000	Features, Scale, Throughput, Instances	Term

DEFINITIONS:

- “Feature” means any feature or functionality in the Software that is licensed by Cisco separately.
- “Instance” means a single copy of the Software (in whole or in part). Each copy of the Software loaded into memory constitutes a single Instance.
- “License Term” means the period of time during which You are authorized by Cisco to use the applicable Software or Feature subject to the terms and conditions of the Agreement.
- “Scale” means a measure of the total number of route prefixes received by a single Instance of the Software.
- “Software” means the Cisco IOS XRv 9000 software.
- “Throughput” means a measure of data traffic in gigabits per second (Gbps) received by a single Instance of the Software.

ADDITIONAL GENERAL LICENSE RIGHTS AND RESTRICTIONS:

- Your license to Use the Software shall be limited to, and You shall not Use the Software in excess of, the Features, Scale, Throughput, Instances, License Term and other limitations set forth in the Entitlement and for which You have paid to an Approved Source the required license fees.
- For the avoidance of doubt, You shall not run multiple Instances unless You have paid the required license fees to an Approved Source for each Instance.

- Notwithstanding the EULA, there is no requirement that the Software be used solely for execution on Cisco equipment. Rather, You may use the Software on Cisco and non-Cisco equipment that is owned or leased by You.
- Upon expiration of the License Term or the earlier termination of Your rights as provided in the Agreement, You shall cease all Use of the Software.
- The Software is based on Cisco's IOS-XR software product. However, the Software and Cisco's IOS-XR software are separate products. The Software may not have the same features, functionality or performance as Cisco's IOS-XR software. Please see the Software's Documentation for a description of the Software.
