

Offer Description – Product

Software for Open Networking in the Cloud and Cisco Open Infrastructure

This Offer Description is part of the General Terms or similar terms existing between You and Cisco (e.g., the End User License Agreement) (the “Agreement”). Capitalized terms, unless defined in this document, have the meaning in the Agreement. Any references to the Supplemental End User License Agreement or SEULA means Offer Description.

1. Summary

This Offer Description covers two separate software products: 1) Software for Open Networking in the Cloud (“SONiC”), a non-Cisco branded product and 2) the Cisco Open Infrastructure Package, a Cisco-branded product. These two software products may be provided bundled together. SONiC is third-party open-source software and is not owned by Cisco. SONiC is subject to separate license terms as set out at www.cisco.com/go/opensource. Any copies of SONiC provided by Cisco are provided solely for Your convenience. Cisco, in its discretion, may stop providing SONiC at any time.

2. Support and Other Services

Your purchase of the Cisco Open Infrastructure Package does not include support, but You can purchase support separately. Cisco does not sell support for SONiC.

3. Data Protection

Personal Data. Cisco does not process Personal Data through SONiC or the Cisco Open Infrastructure Package.

4. Special Terms

Cisco provides SONiC “AS-IS” without any express or implied warranty or indemnity of any kind for any problems or issues, and Cisco will not have any liability arising from or relating to Your use of SONiC. You are solely responsible for Your use of SONiC. SONiC has not been subject to Cisco’s usual testing and quality assurance processes that Cisco uses for its own software. SONiC may have bugs, errors, or other problems or issues. Cisco has no obligation to provide any upgrades for SONiC.
