

Supplemental End User License Agreement

IMPORTANT: READ CAREFULLY

Dear Customer,

This Supplemental End User License Agreement (“SEULA”) contains additional terms and conditions for the Software product(s) set forth herein and licensed under the End User License Agreement (“EULA”) between you and Cisco Systems, Inc., or its Affiliates (collectively, the “Agreement”). Please note that there may be terms in this SEULA that do not apply to you. Only those terms related to the specific Software product(s) you purchased apply to you. Except as otherwise set forth in this SEULA, capitalized terms will have the meanings as in the EULA. To the extent that there is a conflict between the EULA and this SEULA, this SEULA will take precedence.

By downloading, installing, or using the Software you agree to comply with the terms of this SEULA.

General License Terms and Conditions

Your license to the above Products includes APIs (“ND APIs”) that provide additional functionality that are licensed to you to use and make calls to the Products for the sole purpose of developing and implementing software applications that work, communicate, or interact with Your licensed Products. You agree not to assert any of your intellectual property developed with use of and/or used with the ND APIs against Cisco or any of its affiliates, customers, resellers, distributors, or other licensees of the Products or the ND APIs for making, having made, using, selling, offering for sale, or importing: (i) any products or services implementing, interfacing with or operating in combination with the ND APIs; or (ii) any applications developed using the ND APIs. If you do not agree with the foregoing terms for ND APIs, do not make use of such functionality.
