

Cisco Environmental Sustainability Fundamentals – Stage 1 v1.0 (700-242)

Exam Description: Cisco Environmental Sustainability Fundamentals Stage 1 v1.0 (CESF 700-242) is a 60-minute exam that tests a candidate's knowledge of building an environmental sustainability practice. The course Stage 1: Partner Environmental Sustainability Fundamentals helps candidates prepare for this exam.

The following topics are general guidelines for the content likely to be included on the exam. However, other related topics may also appear on any specific delivery of the exam. To better reflect the contents of the exam and for clarity purposes, the guidelines below may change at any time without notice.

45% 1.0 Defining Sustainability

- 1.1 Define sustainability as a way of operating
- 1.2 Describe key actions and business benefits of environmental sustainability
- 1.3 Understand the benefits of a circular economy
- 1.4 Explain Greenhouse Gas Emissions (GHG)
- 1.5 Understand Net Zero
- 1.6 Recognize the benefits of acting and leading by example

40% 2.0 Building a Sustainable Future

- 2.1 Understand the importance of sustainability to business value
- 2.2 Understand the importance of sustainability to customers
- 2.3 Describe the power of digital solutions
- 2.4 Explain Cisco solutions for energy efficiency
- 2.5 Explain Cisco solutions to reduce GHG emissions
- 2.6 Explain Cisco solutions to reduce e-waste

15% 3.0 Paving the Way

- 3.1 Describe Cisco's holistic approach to environmental sustainability
- 3.2 Explain Cisco's history of sustainability leadership
- 3.3 Understand Cisco's corporate environmental sustainability strategy
- 3.4 Explain Cisco's clean energy priority
- 3.5 Explain Cisco's circular business model priority
- 3.6 Explain Cisco's resilient ecosystems investment priority