

Yasmin Nattee
Virtual Sales Manager
Cisco

Yasmin Nattee is responsible for growing Cisco's virtual sales commercial business in Africa having specialised in the Commercial business.

Her key areas of expertise include small business, commercial/mid-market, strategy and planning, partner and customer development, security and service providers.

Prior to taking up her current position, Yasmin served in various divisions within Cisco including business development, marketing and in the commercial mid-market space. Before joining Cisco, she spent 22 years running a small business.

Yasmin has diplomas in art and sales and marketing and has a keen interest in facilitating 'Giving Back' initiatives.