

Yasser Mousa
CTO & Systems Engineering/Architectures Head – Cisco Africa

Yasser Mousa is the Chief Technology Officer & Systems Engineering/Architectures Head for Cisco in Africa, appointed in 2014 based out of Cairo, Egypt.

Yasser is a technology leader with a successful track record in people management, executive relationships and operational excellence. He has great experience in a wide technology landscape starting with enterprise & service provider technologies.

Yasser joined Cisco in September 2000; he speaks 2-languages (Arabic and English). He holds a Bachelor of Engineering Degree in Electrical Communications and Electronics from Cairo University. He also achieved the Cisco Certified Internetwork Expert certification # 7792.

Yasser has special passion to the IOE (Internet of Everything) as it has a direct positive impact to enhance Citizen Services, develop economies and transform industries.