

Craig Zeeman*Director Operations, Global Service Provider, Service Provider & Cloud, Africa at Cisco Systems

With over 25 years' Sales and Engineering experience, Craig is a 17 year Cisco veteran and Director of Global Service Provider, (GSP) Service Provider (SP) & Cloud for Africa at Cisco, having taken on the role in August 2010.

Craig is an acknowledged authority on technology sales in the IT industry and his current responsibilities include working with Cisco's GSP and SP accounts and developing a joint go-to-market with Service Providers building out Cisco Cloud offering solutions across Africa.

Craig also serves on the Africa Leadership Team, the South Africa Leadership Team and Global Service Provider MEA Leadership team. Outside of his Cisco responsibilities, Craig was appointed by the former Minister of Communications as an independent board member to .zaDNA committee.

Craig is also on the board of the University of Western Cape (UWC) for Computer Sciences since 2010. He lives in Johannesburg with his three daughters.