Do not use the Marks in reference to any company or business, except as expressly outlined in the "What You Can Do" section above.

Do not use the Marks in any manner that is likely to create or cause confusion about the source of any products or services or in any way that implies any sponsorship, endorsement, affiliation or association between Cisco and you or any product, service or company. It must be clear that you, your employer or company, and any products or services you provide are independent of Cisco.

Do not use the Marks in a manner that is likely to dilute, defame, disparage, or harm the reputation of Cisco or any person or entity.

Do not use the Marks in conjunction or affiliation with any training activity or to promote the qualifications of an individual or company providing training or like services.

Do not use the Marks as the visual focal point of any approved materials. For example, the Marks should not be larger or more prominent than your name or the name of your employer on your business cards. Similarly, for your personal web site, the Marks should not be more prominent than your name or other information describing you on the page.

Use of the Cisco Certification Logos

3.1. The Logos may be used in the following manner:

3.2 In one-color printing, the Logos can be either black or PMS 3035 (deep blue) on a light background. On a dark background, the Logos can be Cool Gray (Gray 2) or (silver embossed). Four-color process match is acceptable.

3.3 In two-color printing, Four-color process match is acceptable.

3.4. The Logos may also be reversed out of a dark background to the color of the paper on which the Mark is printed on.

3.5. Do not use the Logos on a patterned background or on one that is too light or too dark for it to read well.
