

Flexible Payment Solutions for Education

Easily adapt learning environments without draining your budget

As universities and colleges rely on technology more than ever, getting access to the most current and secure solutions is key. Cisco can help create hybrid learning environments that are both flexible and secure, so your students, teachers and staff can teach, learn and collaborate— no matter where they are.

And flexible payment solutions can ensure your institution gets what it needs, without your budget holding you back.

A changing educational environment

Payment solutions help you access the technology you need to deliver inclusive, innovative and collaborative teaching and learning experiences, across physical and virtual environments. In the face of uncertainty, payment options can provide:

- Affordability: Tailored payment options meet your budget and technology needs with competitive rates and no upfront costs.
- Predictability: Periodic, predictable payments are structured to meet anticipated budget requirements and appropriations.
- Simplicity: The whole Cisco portfolio is included and can be bundled into one payment.
- Flexibility: With the ability to defer initial repayments and structure your agreement to match cash flows within your fiscal budgets, you can ensure payments meet your requirements.

Flexible payment solutions make transforming education possible

Spread your investment over time, and with no upfront costs and competitive rates, you can create a secure and productive learning environment and attract new students in a competitive and challenging landscape—all without draining your budget.

- Benefit from competitive rates to reduce your total cost of ownership and accelerate your return on investment.
- Enhance cash flow and conserve capital budget for other needed investments.
- Deploy the latest, most secure technologies when needed, overcoming any potential budget constraints.
- Preserve current funds to secure additional budget for other high priority initiatives.
