New and Changed Feature Information

This section lists all the new and changed features for the Programmability Configuration Guide.

-

New and Changed Programmability Features

Feature	Changed in Release	Description
NETCONF Accounting Logs	Release 7.6.1	This feature introduces the accounting feature to track the system activity by generating logs for each NETCONF operation. When this accounting is activated, the router reports user activity to the remote AAA servers such as TACACS+ in the form of syslogs. applicable

New and Changed Programmability Features