

Introduction

Overview

TES (Tidal Enterprise Scheduler) is the premier enterprise job scheduling solution. In addition to the core functionality such as defining agents, agent lists, jobs, job groups, triggers, actions, events, and calendars, TES provides network support, monitoring and messaging services, security, flexibility, and fault tolerance.

TES 6.2 allows developers and integrators to customize and/or extend the features using REST API described in this guide.

