

Manage the Virtual Appliance

- CLI Commands on the Virtual Appliance, on page 1
- Azure Monitoring, on page 2

CLI Commands on the Virtual Appliance

The following are the CLI command changes for virtual appliances:

Table 1: CLI Commands on the Virtual Appliance

Command	Supported on Virtual Secure Web Appliance?	Information
loadlicense	Yes	Allows you to install a license for your virtual appliance. You cannot run System Setup Wizard on the virtual appliance without installing a license.
etherconfig	Yes	The Pairing option is not included on virtual appliances.
version	Yes	Returns all the information about the virtual appliance except for the UDI, RAID, and BMC information.
resetconfig	Yes	Retains the virtual appliance license and the feature keys on the appliance.
revert	Yes	Retains the virtual appliance license and the feature keys on the appliance.
reload	Yes	Removes the virtual appliance license and all the feature keys on the appliance. Note This command is available only for Secure Web Appliance.

Command	Supported on Virtual Secure Web Appliance?	Information
diagnostic	Yes	The following diagnostic > raid submenu options will not return information: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Run disk verify 2. Monitor tasks in progress 3. Display disk verify verdict Note This command is only available for Secure Web Appliance.
showlicense	Yes	View license details. For virtual Cisco Secure Web appliances, additional information is available through the featurekey command.

Azure Monitoring

This topic provides support for Microsoft Azure monitoring for the Secure Web Appliance

Table 2: Azure Monitoring

Monitor Type	Support to Secure Web Appliance	Comments
Application Insights	No	You cannot enable Application Insights because Update Azure Agent is not available for the Secure Web Appliance.
Alerts	Yes	Both Custom alerts and Default alerts are available.
Logs	No	You cannot enable Application Insights because " Update Azure Agent " is not available for the Secure Web Appliance.
Metrics	Yes	—
Diagnostic Settings	No	You cannot enable Diagnostic Settings for the Secure Web Appliance.