

New and Changed Information for This Release

- New and Changed Information, on page 1

New and Changed Information

This section provides information on new features and changed behavior in Cisco UCS Manager, Release 3.1 (x).

Table 1: New Features and Changed Behavior in Cisco UCS Manager, Release 3.1 (3)

Feature	Description	Where Documented
HTML5 KVM Client	Cisco UCS Manager Release 3.1(3) now supports HTML5 KVM client for M3 servers and later.	Virtual KVM Console

Table 2: New Features and Changed Behavior in Cisco UCS Manager, Release 3.1 (2)

Feature	Description	Where Documented
Support for 160 LDAP Group Maps	Cisco UCS Manager now supports a maximum of 160 LDAP group maps.	LDAP Group Mapping
Graceful Shutdown	When you acknowledge a server reboot using the graceful shut down options or a change in the service profile that requires the server reboot, Cisco UCS Manager waits until the time specified time in the maintenance policy before performing a hard shut down.	Maintenance Policy
Cisco UCS backup should preserve identities by default.	By default, Preserve Identities is now selected in the GUI when the backup operation is initiated.	Creating a Backup Operation

